A Handmade Start to the New Year

Lately I've noticed that more and more people are looking for ways to step away from the digital overwhelm in life and rediscover the benefits of making things with their hands.

This makes sense to me—when I'm creating something handmade, my mind is quiet, I don't feel rushed, and I'm focused on what's in front of me. And when I'm crafting with others, I get the added benefits of conversation, laughter, and connection. In short . . . friendship. It's the kind of time that feels well spent and just what I need.

I want more of this! How about you? As we begin a new year, let's make a little space for friendship and handmade joy.

Day of Service

Every year, Stampin' Up! employees around the world set aside a day to give back to their communities.

On a recent Day of Service, our Riverton office took part in 13 different volunteer opportunities ranging from crafting with senior living residents to cleaning an equine therapy facility.

"I look forward to our service day every year," shared one employee who volunteered to craft with kids at a Boys & Girls Club. "It feels really special to pause what we're doing to give something to the community we live in."

It's a day filled with time spent doing something meaningful together. We'd love for you to find your own way to give back in your community. Big or small, every act of kindness makes a difference.

Shelli's Faves

I've started a weekly gathering at my house and invited some new friends to create with me. As we've spent time crafting and getting to know one another, I've seen how friendships can naturally form around creativity. These gatherings have reminded me how much I appreciate stamps because they make crafting so inviting. With images and greetings ready to go, they make it easy to tailor a project to the person and occasion. So, it won't surprise you that these stamp sets are my new favorites!

The Graceful Days Bundle (p. 38) has elegant line-art images and coordinating dies that I'll use for both card making and scrapbooking.

I'll use the Make a Tag Stamp Set (p. 46) and the Paper Arched Tag Booklet (p. 74) for quick gift tags and card elements. I can pull out what I need and keep the rest neatly organized until next time.

The P.S. I Love You Stamp Set (p. 50) is one I'll use well beyond Valentine's Day. The greetings make it easy to express love and appreciation year-round.

And I'm excited to create my own backgrounds with the Stripes So Sweet Stamp Set (p. 56). I don't keep many background stamps in my collection, but this is one I know I'll use often.

I can't wait to share these stamps with my stamping friends!

Cofounder & Board Chair

What Can Your Demonstrator Do for You?

What exactly does a demonstrator do?

I share fun ways to craft, help you pick the right supplies, and we make things together. No pressure—just creativity.

So, what makes shopping with you different?

I get to know your style, share ideas, answer questions, and make sure the experience is creative and fun.

What's the best thing about being a demonstrator?

I love to craft on my own time, connect with friends, and get the opportunity to earn a modest supplemental income.

This makes crafting so much more personal.

It really does—community, creativity, and perks.

Do you need experience to start?

Not at all! If you enjoy creating, you already have what it takes.

Want to share your creativity and earn along the way? Become a Stampin' Up! demonstrator! Go online or ask your demonstrator to learn more.
